

Paul Riehle
Vice President
Roush Industries, Inc., Livonia, MI

Paul is a Vice President at Roush Industries, Inc. overseeing the Computer Aided Engineering, Noise & Vibration Control Engineering, and Additive Manufacturing departments. He has over 35 years of experience in the engineering services and product manufacturing areas. The past 25 of those years have been with Roush Industries. His teams provide engineering services and products to customers worldwide in the areas of automotive, military, aerospace, consumer products, sporting goods, computers, and industrial equipment. Paul earned his BS and MS Mechanical Engineering degrees from the University of Cincinnati.